

We do not want our banks, credit card companies, or others we do business with being allowed to contact us with phone calls soliciting additional business. This would destroy our right to privacy as afforded by the current Indiana law. Thank you, Barry & Carol Strong